Resignation of the outgoing government and nomination of a formateur

9 October 2023

Following the legislative elections of 8 October 2023, Prime Minister Xavier Bettel was welcomed in a hearing at the grand ducal palace by HRH the Grand Duke Henri. As is customary on the day following the legislative elections, the Prime Minister presented the resignation of the outgoing government to the head of state. HRH the Grand Duke requested that the government remains in office until the formation of a new government and assigned it the task of continuing to oversee any current affairs.

Following the audience with Prime Minister Xavier Bettel, HRH the Grand Duke successively received Fernand Etgen, President of the Chamber of Deputies, Christophe Schiltz, President of the Council of State, and the presidents of the political parties having presented a list in the four electoral constituencies.

⁵ The Member of Parliament (MP) Ben Polidori left the Pirates on July 15, 2024, to sit as an independent, before joining the LSAP on September 19, 2024, bringing the number of LSAP MPs to 12, while the Pirates now have 2 representatives.

After these hearings, HRH the Grand Duke appointed Luc Frieden as formateur (for the formation of the new government).

Invitation to a first meeting of the coalition negotiations

10 October 2023

Following his assignment as formateur by HRH the Grand Duke, Luc Frieden announced that he had invited the CSV and DP delegations to an initial plenary meeting on the formation of a new government in the wake of the legislative elections on 8 October 2023.

Opening of the coalition negotiations and composition of the 12 working groups

11 October 2023

From 11 October, CSV and DP delegations gathered to initiate the coalition negotiations under the presidency of the formateur Luc Frieden to prepare the formation of the next government. The first plenary meeting of the coalition negotiations was held on 11 October at Senningen Castle.

The first plenary meeting was essentially dedicated to setting the organisational framework of the negotiations.

In this context, the negotiators agreed on the constitution of the following 12 thematic working groups, which in no way anticipate the future organisation of the ministerial departments:

1. Combating poverty
2. Housing, including the acceleration of procedures
3. Environment, climate, biodiversity, and renewable energies, including procedures

4. Public finance and taxation
5. Health, including social security
6. Justice and security
7. Education, including research, higher education, vocational training and non-formal education
8. Economy and work (work life & family balance), including agriculture, viticulture, tourism, consumer protection, industry, financial centre, small and medium-sized enterprises and energy
9. Europe, including defence, cooperation, Greater Region and international relations
10. Shelter and migration
11. Organisation of community life and quality of life, including spatial planning, mobility, culture, sports, senior citizens, voluntary work, equal opportunities, special needs, youth and family
12. Modern state, including digitalisation, media, civil service, municipalities and infrastructure

Meeting with the experts

12 October 2023

From 12 October, formateur Luc Frieden and the CSV and DP delegations met in plenary session at Senningen Castle to hear reports from various experts on the state of Luxembourg's public finances and the economic outlook. The order of speakers invited by the trainer was as follows:

12 October

- Ministry of Finance and Inspectorate of Finance (IGF)
- National Institute for Statistics and Economic Studies (STATEC)
- Financial Sector Supervisory Commission (CSSF) and Supervisory Authority for the Insurance Sector (CAA)

- Mouvement écologique and Conseil supérieur pour un développement durable (CSDD, High Council for Sustainable Development)

Signing of the coalition agreement

16 November 2023

On 16 November, formateur Luc Frieden and the heads of delegation Xavier Bettel for the DP and Claude Wiseler for the CSV signed the coalition agreement between the two parties.

Swearing in of the new government

17 November 2023

On 17 November 2023, HRH the Grand Duke swore in the Prime Minister, the Deputy Prime Minister and the appointed ministers. At the beginning of the ceremony, the head of state signed the grand ducal decrees on the formation of the new government. The Prime Minister, followed by the other members of the government in order of precedence, then took the oath, as stated in article 88 of the Constitution: "I swear to observe the Constitution and the laws and to fulfil my duties with integrity, accuracy, and impartiality."

"Je jure d'observer la Constitution et les lois et de remplir ma fonction avec intégrité, exactitude et impartialité."
